TAKE THE “REPRESENTED EXPRESS” ON A FAST PACED TRIP
THROUGH REPRESENTED THEATRE COMPANY’S 2007-08
SEASON

Take the R4 on a fast-paced trip through an exciting season as Represented Theatre Company pulls into the station with our first full season.

1st Stop: DATING GAMES By: Garth Wingfield

An endless string of horrid blind dates (Mary Just Broke Up With This Guy), a presumptuous pick-up attempt gone awry (Daniel on a Thursday), and singles literally sniffing singles (Run)... Dating Games is a collection of five short plays about contemporary dating -- straight, gay, dog -- and every configuration in between.

"HILARIOUS, ENGROSSING & BRILLIANTLY EXECUTED. With the precision of a skilled surgeon, Wingfield cuts right to the center of each character's neuroses as he or she attempts to navigate the treacherous waters of big city dating life."

--Variety

Location and Date: Shubin Theatre, 407 Bainbridge Street | November 7-18, 2007

2nd Stop: JEFFREY – Paul Rudnick

Jeffrey, a gay actor/waiter, has sworn off sex after too many bouts with his partners about what is "safe" and what is not. Suddenly, just after he's reconciled himself to celibacy, Jeffrey's flamboyant friends introduce him to the man of his dreams, who also happens to be HIV-positive. What follows is an audacious and moving romantic comedy with a difference—one in which the quest for love and really fabulous clothes meet, and where unflagging humor prevails even when tragedy might be just around the corner.

Location: Walnut Street Theatre – Studio 5, 825 Walnut Street | January 9-20, 2008
